

Class Overview: The Christian Life
January 5, 2013 – April 30, 2013

Course Name	The Christian Life
Class Identifier	652
Facilitator	Malcolm Brewer
Language	English
Objectives	You may find The Christian Life course to be a bit different from other courses you have taken in that its primary goal is not the acquisition of knowledge. The course is intended to help you grow in your relationship to Christ and to equip you to help others grow in that relationship. It does not matter whether you are a new Christian or have been a believer for many years. No matter where you are in your journey as a Christian, taking this class should help you deepen your relationship with Christ.
Class Start Date	January 5, 2013
Class End Date	April 30, 2013
Prerequisite	You must have completed the Internet Seminary's Online Student Orientation course (preferably facilitated) before beginning this class. You need to be able to communicate online in the English language.
Requirements	During the course of this class, you will complete the twelve lessons in The Christian Life course. This is an online course that requires your timely participation in online discussions conducted in the class forums. There will be four unit exams. You will be asked to complete and report on two or three individual projects related to the course material.
Grading (pass/fail with 75% minimum)	Lesson completion - self-checks with 80% minimum	20%
	Unit exams	20%
	Timely participation in weekly forum discussions	50%
	Completion of assigned projects	10%
	Total	100%
Schedule	Because I am located in the Pacific Northwest of the United States, all time references are to Pacific time. Most weeks will operate on a Saturday-to-Saturday schedule. Typically you should plan to post your initial responses to the weekly discussion questions by Wednesday and respond to other student posts by Friday. You should expect to invest at least three or four hours a week in this class.	